THE FIDDLER IS NOT A "RINGER," SAY HORSEMEN

Horse Which Won Saturday Looks Like "The Fiddler" They Knew "on the Coast."

ORF PARK RACE TRACK, N. .. Ock 6 .- Whether The Fiddler, who ed how and won the last race Saturafternoon carrying the colors of T. C. Comwell, is a ringer or not is a ming question in turf circles to-day. Just before the race was run Saturday mere were telegrams received form the stating that The Fiddler was being heavily backed and asking if the key Club was sure of the identity fo horse. After the race there was a ed and piteous wat! from all parts of west, where there are poolrooms, big winnings on The Fiddler were orted from Chicago, California.

Louisville and other points.

Algernon Daingerfield, Assistant Sec retary of the Jockey Club, said this ternoon that the stewards of the lockey Club were investigating.
"We believe," he said, "that the horse which ran here Saturday is the genuine The Fiddler." "Was he identified as such before his Beach for two months, and has been trained by Anderson, an old and repected trainer. I have knowpn himyears. Several men have positwely stated that The Fiddler, which ran on Saturday, was not McNamara. It has been said that McNamara was rung in for The Fiddler. As to whether The Fiddler is the identical horse that raced at St. Louis and Trisco under that name I cannot positively state."

The Fiddler, Says Morris.

Green B. Morris, who has raced in California many winters, said that he thought The Fiddler, which raced here en Saturday, was the same horse that he saw in California. "I did not take particular notice of him, however, because he is a cheap plater, and you don't take much notice of this kind. While I could not positively swear that this is the same horse he looks like him, save that he has a bit more flesh."

"Plittsburg Phil," when asked if he believed the reports of great winnings an The Fiddler, laughed scornfully.

"Pipe stories, all of them." he said.

"You couldn't get $100,000 from the Chicago rooms if you put all of them into a life press and squeezed them dry. The stories are ridiculous."

Green Morris corroborated "Plittsburg Phil" in his estimate of the Chicago hand-books.

Some racing men have a shrewd suspicion that John J. Ryan, the "getrich-quick" plunger, is at the bottom of the whole affair. It is said that Ryan was once ruled off at Fort Erie for his connection with a ringing case, and they say he likes a little sure money.

Ryan left the East about ten days ago. When he left he made the significant remark that he had some business to attend to in the West. It is also known that the horse Hiram Johnson, who was said to have been a ringer at New Orleans last winter, subsequently, turned up at Ryan's Newport track after a mysterious disappearance from the New Orleans course.

Worked Very Fast.

rack watchers, men who watch horses the morning gailors, say that they seen the horse work very fast. One minent clocker saw The Fiddler work furlongs in 1.13 at Brighton Beach was not able to dentify the horse. I he saw him in the paddock Saturs bome is in this town and who played with the saw him in the paddock Satura day.

There are many who believe that the house was really The Fiddler, but that he was heavily doped on Saturday. It is contended that if he was a ringer he would have made a better showing, for he was barely able to get home in front of Flara, who is a very obeap selling-plater. It is conceded that the company that The Fiddler met Saturday was the poorest collection that has been seen this season.

Because more than $500,000 was won in the betting ring at Morris Park and in the betting ring at Morris Park and in the victory of The Fiddler in the sixth race on Saturday, the stewards of the Westchester Racing Association would not permit the golding to face the starter in the second race to-day pending an investigation.

Western pool-room men who lost heavily through the gelding's victory make the accusation that The Fiddler is a "ringer." In San Francisco pool-rooms, where a great deal of money was won on Saturday's race by men known to be friendly with B. F. Chilson and H. Stover, who were ruled off at St. Louis for the attempted Abbie L.-Untrue rings in micident, payment of bets was suspended until the Westchester racing stewards establish the identity of The Fiddler.

It is thought both in San Francisco and St. Louis that the horse which ran here Saturday as The Fiddler is the six-year-old bay gelding MacNamara by The Bard-Athaniric, which ran several races at Butte, Mon., in 1902, and out of seventeen starts was unplaced only three times. The Fiddler is a five-year-old bay gelding said to be by Falsetto-Cachuca, and is said to bear a striking resemblance to MacNamara.
